

CASE STUDY - PROJECT MANAGEMENT & CONTRACT ADMINISTRATION

SLATER & GORDON

22 Station Road, Cambridge

Slater & Gordon are one of the UK's largest law firms with 3,800 staff across 27 locations in England, Scotland and Wales. They are the world's first publicly listed law firm and date back to 1935 when it was founded in Australia.

Robin Holme
MRICS MAPM RMaPS

Director -
Dunlop Heywood

t: +44 (0)113 380 0823

Project value: £600,000 | Project duration: 7 weeks | Size: 6,000 sqft

Dunlop Heywood were appointed to project deliver the Cat B fitout of the new regional offices for the client, an international law firm.

Service lines involved:

- Building consultancy
- Project management
- Cost consultancy
- Workplace consultancy
- CDM services

Challenges:

- Liaison with stakeholders and generation of an accepted layout within very tight timescales
- Provide realistic cost, programme and specification advice to the stakeholder within tight timescales to meet operational needs

Results:

- High quality fitout of new premises
- Improved work efficiency through workplace consulting process
- Controlled expenditure with budget without compromise in the scheme