10. Your statutory rights

You have a number of rights concerning the personal information we process about you. You have the right to:

- ask us for access to a copy of your personal information we hold about you. This is called a data subject access request. We may ask you to provide ID to verify your identity.
- ask us to correct your personal information if it is inaccurate. We may ask you to provide confirmation to ensure the information we hold is accurate.
- ask us to delete your personal information. We are unable to delete your information if the law requires us to keep it for a statutory period or there is a lawful reason we must keep the information. We will always investigate any request and advise you, if we are unable to erase your data.

- withdraw your consent to use your personal information. Where you have provided consent for our processing of your personal data, you may withdraw that consent at any time by simply contacting the branch or team you have been speaking to.
- ask us to restrict the use of your personal data, including direct marketing.
- object to our use of your personal data for our legitimate business interests. You have an absolute right to object to our use of your data for direct marketing.
- object to an automated decision.

Subject Access Request

If you wish to make a request for access to a copy of your personal data, or to exercise any of your other rights, please write to your local branch in the first instance. Further information on the request process and a subject access request form is available from dataprotection@lrg.co.uk Please be aware if we receive all the necessary information with your request, we are able to locate your data and send it to you more quickly. We will endeavour to respond to and comply with your request as quickly as possible. We are aware of the statutory deadline for a subject access request, however we will always try to send your information before the legal deadline.

Making a data subject access request

1. We need sufficient information for us to locate your personal data. We do not have a single database and some of your information may be held in paper files.
2. We need to know which of our companies has processed your information and the branch or office location.
3. If you are seeking information for just a period of time or a specific issue, please tell us as this will help us and speed up your request.
4. We may need to ask you for proof of your identity. It is an offence to request the personal information of someone else.
5. There is no fee for this service.
6. The statutory deadline is one month. We may extend this deadline if your request is complex.
7. You will receive all the information you are legally entitled to. You will not receive information regarding third parties or other individuals. You will not receive legally privileged information.

We have a form to assist you with your request, it is available from dataprotection@lrg.co.uk

11. How we protect your information

We store your personal information on our electronic computer systems and in our paper filing systems. In accordance with the law we have strict security procedures to ensure that personal information is not damaged, destroyed or misused, and to prevent unauthorised access to your information. We have an internal breach reporting system to record all information security incidents and breaches. Serious data breaches are reported to the ICO within 72 hours, in accordance with the GDPR and the Data Protection Act 2018.

12. Data Transfers

The GDPR applies to all countries within the EU and European Economic Area (EEA). Therefore, countries in the EU and EEA are deemed to have appropriate and adequate legislation in place to protect your personal information. We will ensure that there is adequate security and comparable legislation in place before sending your information to other countries outside the EEA, for example the USA has Privacy Shield to demonstrate comparable security to the GDPR. In accordance with the Data Protection Act 2018 and GDPR, if we need to transfer data outside the EEA and the country it's transferred to is not on an approved list for having adequate security controls in place, we will limit the amount of personal data we send. We will also impose contractual obligations or seek assurances from the recipients to ensure the security and confidentiality of your personal data to safeguard your information.
